

Please, under no circumstances, inhibit the broadcast of traffic news over XM radio. I travel by car a great deal and can always rely on timely information no matter which major city I am in. Attempting to find local stations, even where I live, that can tell me the info I want is difficult and not timely.